10 NEIGHBORHOODS

O.K. There's the Zoo. And Sea World. Old Town. Even Tijuana has its moments. But sometimes you just have to get off the beaten path and explore the nooks and crannies of the places where real people really live.

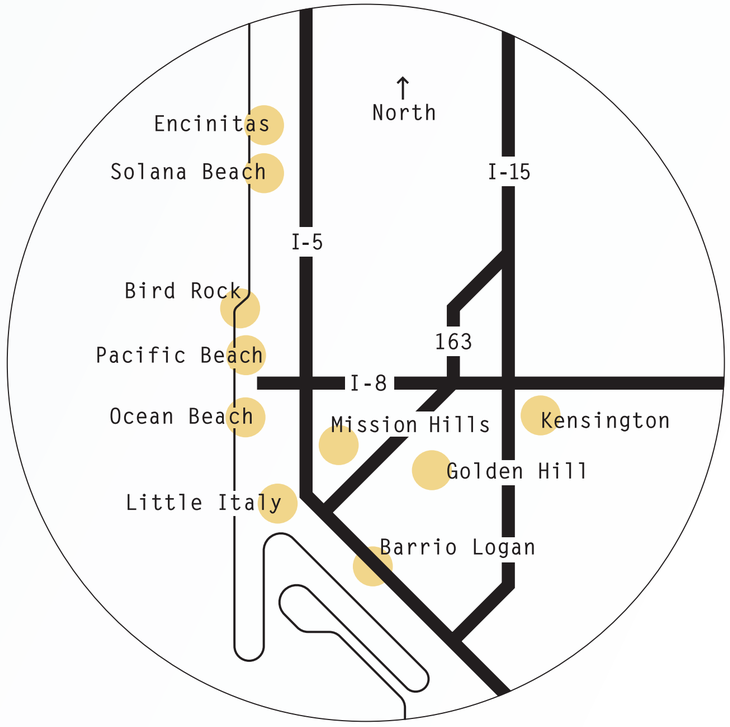
NUESTRO BARRIO



You can usually drive to any of these places in thirty minutes or less. In some cases, there is also a public transportation option. Keep in mind, not all of these areas are safe, especially if you seem confused or lost. Know where you’re going, bring a friend, and proceed with a healthy mix of caution and curiosity.

Little Italy: Just north of downtown San Diego, on India Street and Kettner Boulevard between Cedar and Laurel Streets.

Encinitas: Take the Coaster, or drive I-5 north to Encinitas Boulevard. Go west to old Highway 101, then head south.

Barrio Logan: Take the trolley, or drive I-5 south to Crosby Street. Head south on Logan Avenue.

Pacific Beach: I-5 north to the Grand/Garnet exit. North on East Mission Bay Drive to Garnet, head west to Mission Boulevard.

Kensington: I-8 east to I-15 south. Take the first exit, Adams Avenue, and go east back across the freeway.

Solana Beach: Take the Coaster, or drive I-5 north to Lomas Santa Fe. West to Cedros, head south, or continue west to 101.

Mission Hills: I-5 north to India/Washington Street exit. North on India Street to Washington, then east, up to Goldfinch.

Ocean Beach: From the western terminus of I-8, take Sunset Cliffs Boulevard south to Newport Avenue, then go west.

Bird Rock: I-5 north to Grand/Garnet. West to Mission Boulevard, north till Mission Boulevard becomes La Jolla Boulevard.
